HELLO!

You might not be able to see me right now, but imagine I'm sitting across from you at your favourite coffee shop. I'm smiling, welcoming you and sipping a Caramel Macchiato, my coffee of choice.

It's rare that I get to enjoy a hot beverage in a cafe without having to worry about entertaining toddlers with my beautiful wife. When I'm not taking photos, I'm herding two young boys around the house and the GTA. So, this little meeting we have here, this is a chance for me to catch a breath and talk with grown-ups!

Seeing my wife love and nurture our boys unconditionally makes me love her even more than the day we exchanged our vows. My greatest wish is that my clients experience this kind of love and a sense of belonging that we have been able to carve out in this crazy world.

Photographing couples is one of my favourite things to do! I love capturing the intensity between two people in love, ready to commit to one another. Whether it's your engagement photo session or the big day, I take every detail in and document it for you. I want you to be able to look back on this day and remember how you felt, from the excitement in your stomach to the happy tears welling up in your eyes.

This day is yours. To have and to hold. I'm grateful for the ability to see it through your eyes. I look forward to getting to know you and helping to make your celebration a night to remember.

'Til then,
Dragi

WHAT OUR CLIENTS HAVE TO SAY

the engagement session

Why have an engagement photo session? Simply because it's fun. You can pamper yourself, dress up and — here's the best part — snuggle and kiss your best friend for an hour or two without interruption!

In our fast-paced world, sometimes we forget to stop moving and thinking. We forget to just be present with our partner. Engagement photo sessions give you the time and space to slow down, stare into each other's eyes and maybe even fall further in love.

Hold hands, rest your head on his shoulder or hold her face close. Posing couples for engagement sessions brings out the hopeless romantic in me!

Look into the future and think of your engagement photo session as a test drive for the real thing. You and I will have a chance to get better acquainted, which will help you feel more comfortable with me. We'll share stories and laugh in a relaxed atmosphere without the pressure and excitement of your pending nuptials.

Your guests are there for you. When you send your "Save the Date" cards or design your wedding website, use your engagement photos in the design. Your guests like getting a glimpse of the love and affection you have for one another. They look forward to witnessing your life-long commitment and like seeing pictures of you together.

If you're a couple that plays a round or two of golf together or enjoys walking the dog in the evenings while catching up on the day's events, engagement photos can portray that. Your wedding guests will see you in your wedding dress and tux, why not remind them of how you met or what you're like together?

Engagement photo sessions are your chance to be creative, have fun and relish in the excitement before the planning process begins. Book your session in advance to have your images ready for invitations, upload to your website or even for post-wedding thank you cards.

Love, create and share your engagement photos.

WHY BOOK WITH US

My wedding couples most often comment on how my upbeat personality truly helped all involved to smile, relax and enjoy the moments of their big day. I ensure that my photography styles produce the images that suit your taste and my collections include a customizable print credit which allows flexibility to make it your own. Just like finding your soulmate was a lesson in patience, waiting for the right person at the right time, so is finding the right photographer for you. Look no further - because you may have found your photography "soulmate" right here!

Personality. Feeling comfortable on your wedding day makes a world of difference to how your images turn out.

Work. If you genuinely like your photos, you will revisit them often. It truly is an investment for a lifetime of memories.

Price. I say it all the time - you don't have to buy the entire store. Be honest with your potential photographer regarding your photography needs and you may find that there is a collection alternative that suits you both.

Whether I have personally handed you this magazine, or you picked it up from a display, now is the time to compare what you see here with other photographers' personality, body of work and pricing. I would love the opportunity to chat with you about what I have to offer that will compliment your big day.

Get Ready!

It's all in the details. Whether it's a photo of your bridesmaids' reactions to your wedding dress or your groomsmen sharing a laugh, I'm there to photograph the details and emotions of the day. With a photojournalistic eye, I like to capture the real events that lead up to your nuptials.

Portraits

Get a mix of formal and informal portraits perfect for displaying on your desk at work or your mantle at home. I will take photos of the happy couple (that's you!), your wedding party and your family and friends. I take a mix of casual, traditional or photojournalistic style photos so you'll have plenty of pictures to choose from.

Ceremony and Reception

Everything about your ceremony will be documented. From the musicians playing and your parents being seated to the big kiss to seal the deal! I'll also be there to capture the fun and heartfelt moments at your reception like the tearful toasts and your guests busting a move on the dance floor. One of my favourite photos to take is an intimate nighttime shot either in the reception hall or just outside while your guests are inside celebrating. The end of the night is a special time - you've just committed to one another and you've pulled off an event to remember. I like to capture you relishing in the joy of the day.

ONE

Organize. Then, organize some more. Create a detailed timeline for events like when the flowers are to arrive, when the car will be around and when hair and make-up should be complete. Write everything down and keep it with someone you trust to update you.

THREE

Practice makes progress. Schedule a run-through of hair and make-up and take photos of yourself with it on. Walk around the house in your wedding heels or dress shoes. Blisters and sore feet will distract from enjoying the day ahead.

FIVE

Order 25 extra invitations, just in case you missed someone or one of your guests misplaces theirs. It's less expensive to buy in bulk, so plan for the extras ahead of time.

SEVEN

Two months or more before your wedding date, schedule a consultation with your photographer. How convenient, this is also a great time to take engagement photos! Why not schedule both at the same time?!

TWO

Eat! I know, it's tough to eat when you're excited, but try. The last thing you want is a headache or to be irritable with the one person you're going to spend the rest of your life with. Put someone in charge of providing snacks while you get ready.

FOUR

Schedule your cake and flower arrival perfectly. During the summer months especially, have your cake arrive just on time. A sweaty cake doesn't photograph well. Keep flowers from wilting in the heat by putting them in the crisper in your refrigerator or a cooler.

SIX

Pack a Wedding Day Emergency Kit. Clear nail polish for pantyhose snags, pain reliever for headaches, make-up for touch ups, bandaids for blisters and a travel sewing kit with threads the colour of you and your attendants' outfits.

EIGHT

Follow-up with all your scheduled vendors a week before go-time. If there are any mistakes, this is the time to fix them.

Expect the unexpected. Yes, plan ahead and try to cover all your bases, but in the end not everything goes as planned. Do your best and remember that it's your outlook and attitude that makes for a brilliant and successful day!

DO YOU TAKE PAYMENT INSTALLMENTS?

Yes, of course! We can work out a payment schedule to make sure you're able to pay for the images you want. All we ask is you deposit 25% up front to lock in your date and have the remaining amount to us TWO weeks before your wedding.

SOMEONE ELSE IS PAYING FOR OUR PHOTOS. WHO SIGNS THE CONTRACT?

Regardless of who is paying for your wedding photos, it's always you - the happy couple - who signs the contract. You'll be my primary contact and the people I speak with leading up to, on the day of, as well as the days following your wedding

HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE TO GET MY PICTURES?

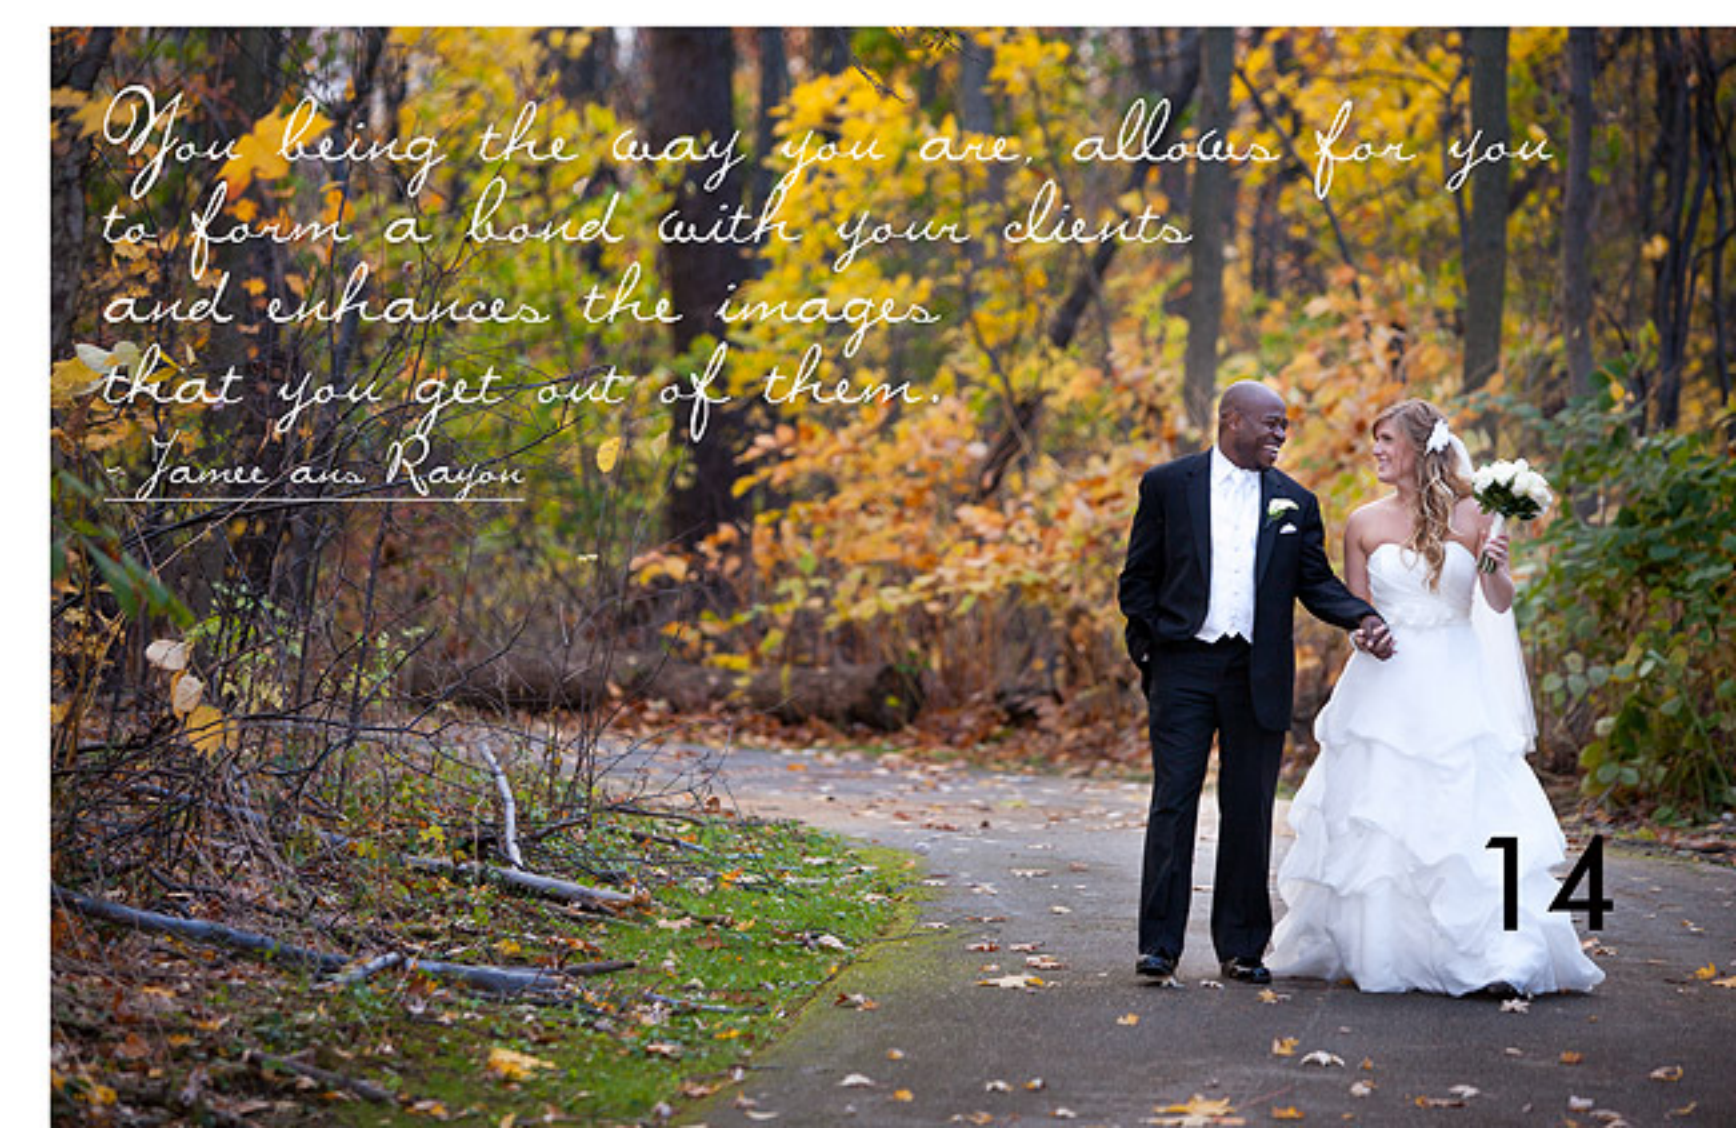

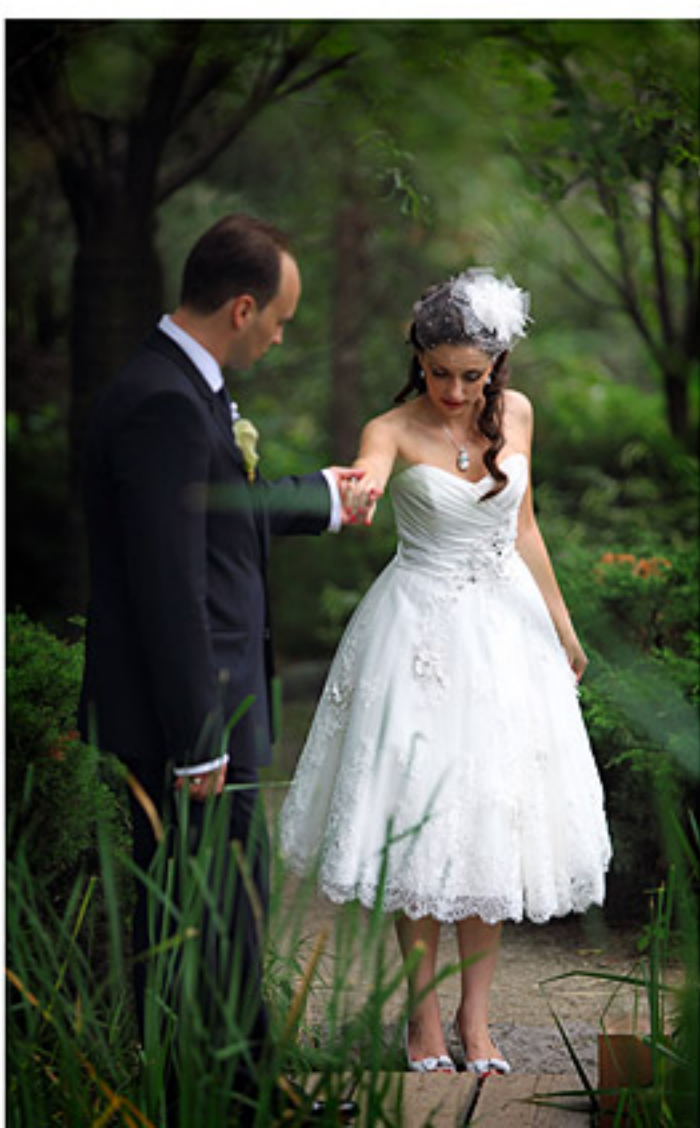

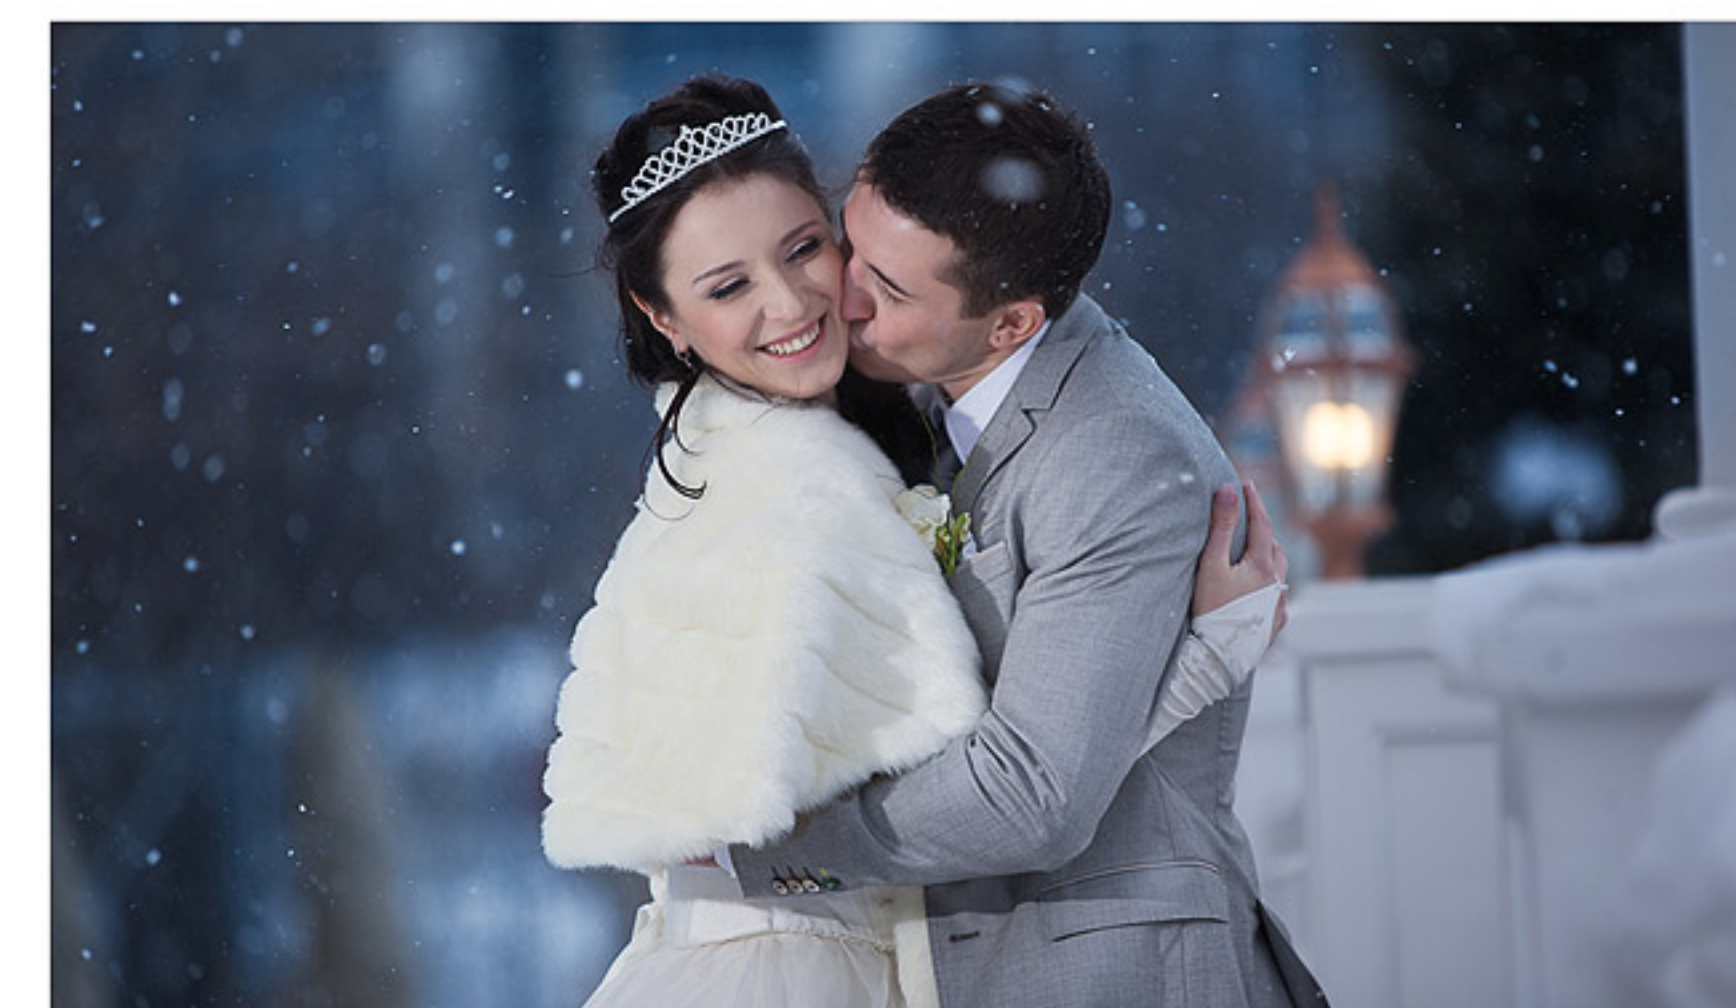

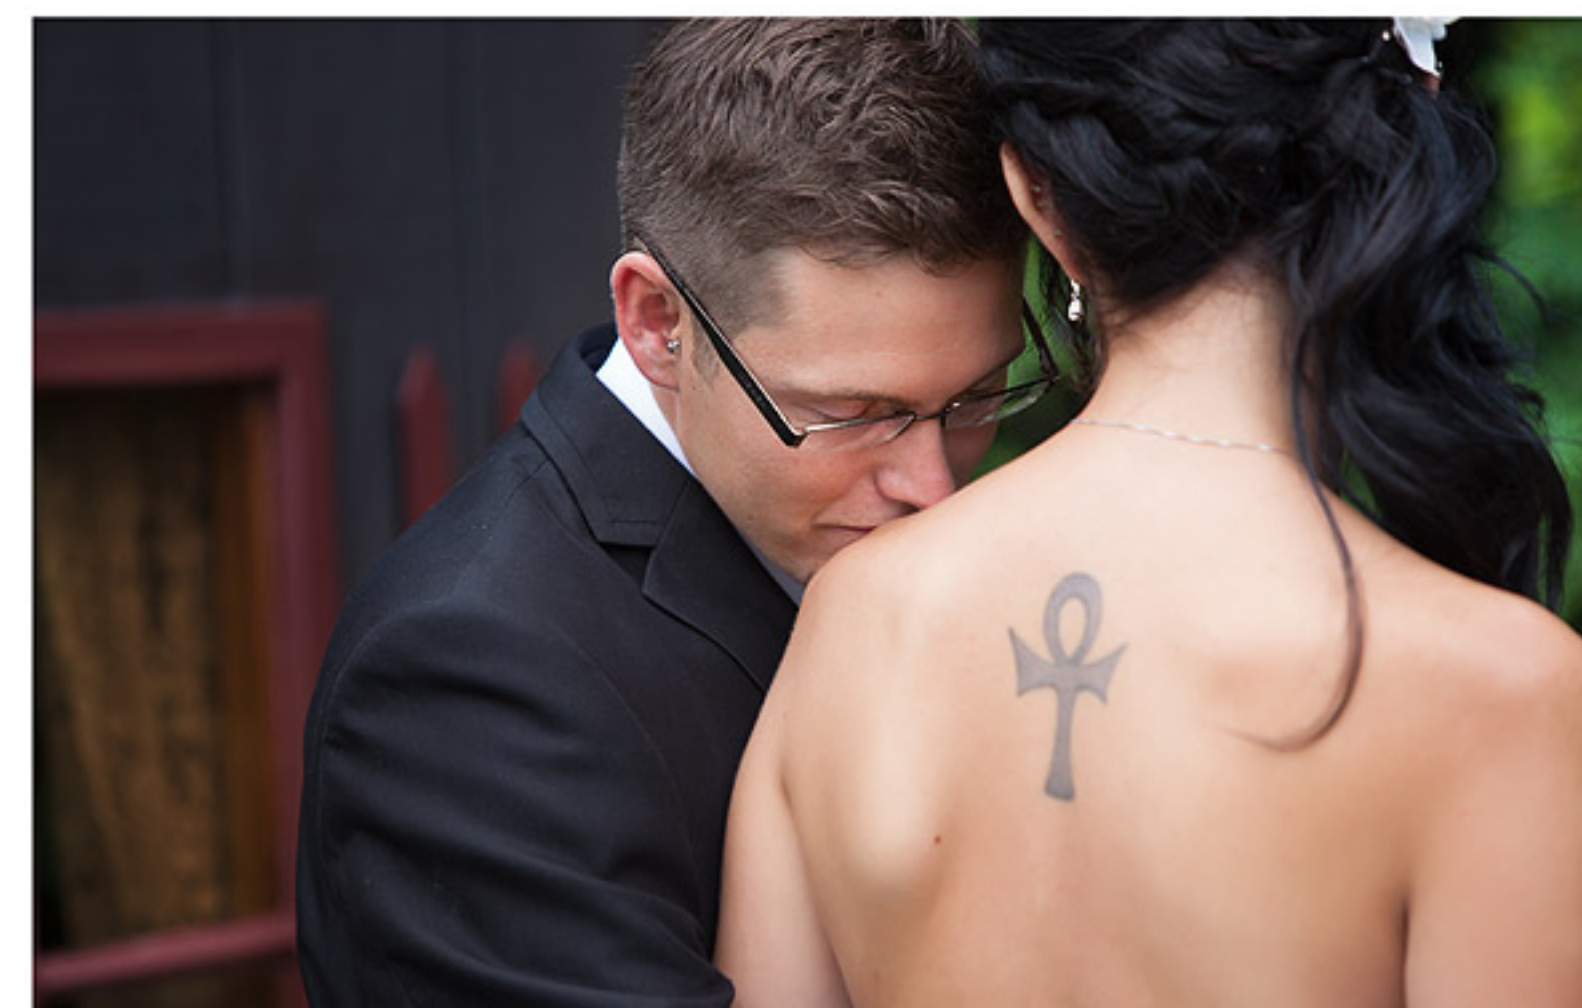

My guarantee is simple, you will always receive your digital image files within four weeks after you select your favourites. Possibly earlier, but definitely no later.

DO YOU DESIGN WEDDING ALBUMS?

Our modern coffee table albums are breathtaking and yes, I do design them in-house. I will work with you to include the photographs you love most and ensure you love your album from cover to cover. Ask for our handmade Italian collection of flush mount books.

DO YOU PROVIDE CUSTOMIZED COLLECTIONS?

Not all weddings are the same — I get it! For that reason, I will provide a customized wedding collection to suit your needs. Whether you're planning an intimate wedding ceremony that lasts a few hours or a hosting a two-day event, I can photograph your wedding. Let me know what you'd like and we'll make a plan together!
